No matter what your present or past status in the Catholic Church. No matter what your current family or marital situation. No matter what your past or present religious affiliation. No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Discipleship is not something casual. It is a process that requires a growth in understanding, a deeper knowledge of the master, a growth in Christian awareness. To know Jesus is to know the Father but this is possible only when we abide with Christ. It means becoming part of God’s family where there is an atmosphere of shared values, a focus of love and concern, a warm and inviting place. It is a community where we are joined with others at every turn in our Christ life. That is as it should be with God’s family. In this home we define our belief and our way of living each day. We are missioned to the world to share the Good News in word and deed. And as St. Paul reminded us: “For you have been purchased at a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body.”

CHURCH HUMOR: A priest asked a little girl at school: “How many sacraments are there?” She replied “None.” The priest asked : “Why do you say that?” She answered: “Well my uncle died last week, and Father O’Brien said he received the last one.”

Bishop William Winter will be celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation for the eighth grade students from St. Colman and St. Maurice Parishes on Tuesday, April 14, 2015 at St. Maurice Church in Forest Hills. Any parishioners who have not completed their Sacraments of Initiation and wish to participate in this opportunity, please contact the parish office at 412-823-2564. Confirmation is a prerequisite for marriage in the Catholic Church.

CATHOLIC CEMETERIES ASSOCIATION
The Catholic Cemeteries Association will be conducting an informal program in the coming months to determine the future needs of the diocesan cemeteries, in the areas surrounding our parish. This diocesan approved program is over thirty years old and remains as one of the most effective ways we can support the work of the Association. The purpose of the program is to provide assistance to the faithful by presenting options available to them at our diocesan cemeteries. As a parishioner, there may be an occasion when you will be contacted either in person, or over the phone, by a representative of CCA. For your protection, all CCA personnel are required to wear a photo identification badge, and immediately identify themselves as an employee of the Association. If you have any questions regarding the employment status, or contact made by a CCA representative, you are asked to call the Catholic Cemetery Association at 412-521-9133.

HOME WITH THE LORD: Your prayers are requested for the repose of the soul Theodora June Maccagnan.. May she rest in the peace and the joy of the Lord.

DIOCESE VICTIM ASSISTANCE HOTLINE
1-888-808-1235
DIOCESAN DATABASE & REGULATIONS FOR ALL MINISTRIES: Protecting God’s Children - This is a session required by the Diocese for ALL Volunteer ministers and staff members of the Parish, including catechist, ushers, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, choir members, or any of the other 57 ministries in the parish. You MUST attend this session to complete your clearance process. Without this class, you are not to minister in the parish. There are many sessions listed on the Diocese of Pittsburgh website at www.diopitt.org.

THE WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES
The World Meeting of Families, an international gathering sponsored by the Pontifical Council for the Family, will be held this September 22 to September 25, 2015 in Philadelphia. It is the world’s largest Catholic gathering of families. There will be keynote lectures, catechetical conferences, age appropriate breakout sessions and liturgies. Evenings will include fun family activities. Complete details may be found at www.worldmeeting2015.org. The Holy See has confirmed Pope Francis will be coming to Philadelphia. The Diocese of Pittsburgh has arranged several pilgrimage packages to the World Meeting of Families including the visit of Pope Francis to Philadelphia. Please consult bulletin board in vestibule for information.

January 22nd DAY OF PRAYER FOR LIFE
The annual March for Life in Washington D.C. will be held on January 22nd. This event is a public demonstration of dissatisfaction over the 1973 Supreme Court decision which permits abortion. There is a need for prayer to address this evil. Most individuals are unable to attend the march but may show solidarity and support those involved with prayer. January 22nd has been designated as a day of prayer for the faithful on behalf of a greater respect for human life.

“CELEBRATION WEEKEND”
This weekend we pause to celebrate the sacrifices of more than 44,000 faithful Catholics across the diocese who heard the call as good stewards to receive God’s gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly, and return them with increase to the Lord. Already, the Campaign is having a positive impact here at St. Colman Parish. We have invested your gifts in repairing the school roof and repairing and painting the classrooms in the newer school building. The Church Organ will be our next project once the funds are available. As our pledges are paid off over the next five years, we will continue to update you on the progress toward our priority needs. The Campaign now moves from the two-year Solicitation Phase fully into the Pledge Redemption Phase, which will last 5 years after the completion of our parish campaign. As your Pastor, I want to personally thank you for your sacrificial gift, and join you in giving thanks to our generous God.

BLESSING FOR EXPECTANT MOTHERS

During October the Church reminds us of the respect for human life at all levels from conception until death. The miracle of birth is part of God's continuing work of creation. The beauty and dignity of human life is especially evident in that experience. A blessing will be offered to expectant mothers on the weekend of January 24/25th after each of the Masses. Please remain in church at the conclusion of the liturgy.
