THE SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Today's liturgy of the Word couples John the Baptist's recognition of Jesus and his mission with Isaiah's second song of the suffering servant. What is said of the mission of Jesus is to be duplicated in the life of every Christian. As Paul indicated, the Christian is "consecrated" and "called" just as was Jesus himself. This calling results in our forgiveness and is also the source of our mission. It is easy to forget that our calling carries with it a real sense of responsibility. Our call signifies a sacredness before the Lord. It implies the fact that we have been forgiven. But just as Paul identifies himself as an apostle, one who is sent, the same is true of us, sent to the neighborhood, the workplace, the town or city, the school. We are called to bring a deep commitment to Christian values to a society of shifting values. This commission springs from Baptism and is reinforced in Confirmation. It is a call that touches all of us. Our words and actions should reflect the message of Christ to contribute to the work of the Church.

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

Can you say "I have testified Jesus is the Son of God?" If you aren't talking about Jesus in your family, you aren't testifying. If you are not walking your talk, your children will see your words as meaningless.

IT TAKES A LIFETIME

It takes a lifetime to learn how to live,
How to share and how to give,
How to face tragedy that comes your way,
How to face courage to face each new day.
How to smile when your heart is sore,
How to go on when you can take no more.
How to laugh when you want to cry,
How to be brave when you say goodbye.
How to still love when your loss is so great,
How to forgive when your urge is to hate.
How to be sure that God's really there,
How to find Him, seek Him in prayer.
