FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are often inclined to equate our faith with our knowledge of it, to make study and eloquence a high priority in the Christian life. We can never question our need for an intelligent and skilled deepening of our faith and understanding. But in today's liturgy we are reminded that it is not proficiency which saves. Salvation is the work of God whose action within us is to become transparent in our daily life. It is the proclaimed word, alive within us, that makes us the "light of the world" and the "salt of the earth." Our light illumines and gives meaning to the surrounding reality. The Christian life is to be one of clear witness along with the praise and glory that are given exclusively to God.
