THE SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St. Paul reminds us today that "eye has not seen, ear has not heard...what God has prepared for those who love Him." He clearly states that God has revealed this wisdom to us through the Spirit. What, then, is this wisdom and how do we reflect it? It is a vision whereby we see with different eyes. It is the mysterious power to love everyone, the superhuman ability to forgive even the worst of enemies, the knowledge that all suffering leads to resurrection. The enjoyment of this hidden wisdom is not reserved to a select few such as the great mystics of the Christian tradition. It is available to all who believe, to all who are willing to take pains to look where human eyes ordinarily do not look, to struggle to hear what human ears usually miss - - the teachings and example of Jesus himself.

THE SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

To experience the peace which Christ promises we must shed our grudges, jealousy and feelings of being misunderstood, unappreciated or ignored. Peace and anger don't mix. Today's gospel warns, if you want peace in your heart and home, get rid of your anger. Anger is too costly.

9th Annual Gathering of Catholic Men... Come & See! Pope Francis "invites all Christians, everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ, or at least an openness to letting him encounter them to do this unfailingly each day. No one should think that this invitation is not meant for him or her, since no one is excluded from the joy brought by the Lord." Please join us for the 9th Annual Gathering of Catholic Men ... Come and See. Just as Philip invited Nathanael, you are invited to come and see Jesus, come and see the blessings he has planned for you!
