FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Once again we are starting another Lenten season. We are invited during these forty days to look at our lives as followers of Christ and members of his Body. What steps do we need to take so that when Easter comes, we will be able to celebrate just as joyfully as our newly baptized brothers and sisters. Lent is different for each person because each of us has different needs for personal spiritual renewal. We may need to look at patterns of behavior that are harmful. Failure to attend Mass, a poor prayer practice, criticism, anger, dishonesty, laziness, selfishness, etc.—whatever issues are a struggle—these we must address. Prayer and scripture (especially at Mass) can direct us in what we need to do. It is a time to look closely within and decide on what must be done. May the grace of God guide your efforts in this holy season.

First Sunday of Lent
A Family Perspective

Jesus “was led by the Spirit in the wilderness.” What is the wilderness in your life to which the Holy Spirit is leading you this Lent? Perhaps there are uncharted areas in your marriage or family relationships. Spend this Lent in your “wilderness” with God work. Where is the spirit leading you this Lent?

Easter Duty

The question has been posed from time to time whatever happened to the Easter Duty. It remains the teaching of the Church that “once admitted to the blessed Eucharist, each of the faithful is obligated to receive Holy Communion at least once a year. This precept must be fulfilled during the Paschal time, unless for good reason it is fulfilled at another time during the year” (Canon 920). The Paschal season is from the First Sunday of Lent until Trinity Sunday. The obligation to receive the sacrament of Penance is also implied in this duty. In truth, however, this minimal norm should not be the practice of a Catholic who is serious about their spiritual life. Every Sunday should be the norm.

The Light Is On For You

“The Light is On For You” is an initiative of the Diocese of Pittsburgh to encourage Catholics to avail themselves of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confession is a wonderful opportunity to set aside our sinful ways and to draw closer to our Lord. If you have been reluctant to come to the sacrament, have been away for some time or just found it difficult to get to a Saturday afternoon confession time, this is a wonderful opportunity to reconnect with Christ and His Church. Confession will be available on Monday, March 4th from 6-8pm at St. Colman Church.

Home With The Lord: Your prayers are requested for the repose of the souls of Frances Carroll and Richard Licina. May they rest in the peace and the joy of the Lord.

“Sanctuary Lamps”

The Sanctuary Lamps are lit this week in memory of William A. Stanonik as requested by Wife & Family and Terry Damico as requested Joyce & Drew.

FEAST OF ST. COLMAN

Monday, February 18th is the Feast of St. Colman, patron of our parish. Colman was bishop of Lindisfarne in northern England, at a time when certain Irish traditions were being questioned in England of the seventh century. What was in question were the traditions of St. Columba, particularly the celebration of Easter. In 467, Rome and Constantinople decided on a common method of determining Easter, but the Irish were far from Rome and continued in their own tradition. In England, a national assembly was called to decide the matter. Since the Irish were the only people in Europe following the old date, the continental custom was accepted and the Irish monasteries were ordered to comply. To St. Colman, this was a rejection of the authority of St. Columba. Making sure that his monastery would not be disturbed in their other traditions, St. Colman took a large group of Irish and English monks who agreed with him and returned to Iona, off the coast of western Scotland. Later, he established two monasteries for his monks in Ireland. He died in the late seventh century.

ALL DAY EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

During the Year of Faith which began last October, a Day of Eucharistic Adoration has been proposed by the Worship Office asking God’s continued blessings on his people and the Church. At St. Colman, we will celebrate a Day of Eucharist Adoration on the last Wednesday of each month from January until June. The Blessed Sacrament will be displayed after the 8:30 am Mass (unless there is a funeral, then after the funeral) until Benediction at 6:30pm. Please plan ahead to spend some time in Church. It is essential that there be a presence in church during those days. There will be a sign-up chart in the vestibule of the church for the various times during the day.
