THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

The successful outcome of God’s salvific plan appears in all three readings today. In the midst of exile and dispersion, Jeremiah sows the seeds of hope with God’s promise of a new and more effective covenant. The authors of the letter to the Hebrews and the fourth gospel see the outcome of Jesus’ work in His deliverance of glorification. But both of them state forcefully that this is realized on by Christ’s following the path of suffering and endurance. The outcome is certain but it comes at a great price. As Jesus reminds us in today’s gospel, discipleship means walking our own distinct path. For some people the loss of life if life is to be gained. No two people walk the same path. For some people the loss of life is literal; they are called to martyrdom for the gospel. Other make sacrifices in the ordinary activities and encounters of daily life which challenge us to respond in a Christian manner. There are many paths to glory. But on that path the seed must die, for only death brings life.

TENEBRAE...ST. COLMAN PARISH will be presenting its 15th annual Tenebrae on Good Friday, Friday, April 3rd at 7pm. The theme of the service is based on the Passion and Death of Jesus Christ. The Scripture Readings and Music to be performed have a great significance with the Crucifixion and Death of Jesus Christ. Please join us for this moving and spiritual experience.
