EASTER SUNDAY

If you want to find out what Easter does not mean, just spend some time watching or reading the news. All of the negative and depressing news you see or read is not a sign that there is new life to be found in our world. No, Easter will not be found in the nightly newscast. We find Easter where we find men and women alive with love for neighbors, near and far. We find Easter when we see people caring for each other in all the difficulties that life can bring. We find Easter when we see parents taking care of their children, even though it means giving up so much, so often. Whenever you and I bring some genuine life to another person, we are helping people believe in the new life that Jesus offers through the earth shattering event we call the Resurrection. Easter call us to live with a positive and encouraging attitude. On this Easter day may we allow the risen Jesus to bring new life to us. And may we, in turn, bring that new life to one another. +

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share: “Christ is Risen. He is Risen indeed. Alleluia! Rejoice and be glad that you are loved by the Risen Lord.” Happy and Blessed Easter to all. Deacon Herb. Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

INVALID MARRIAGES: CAN WE DO SOMETHING?

A common question that we receive concerns sacramental status and sponsor eligibility in the cases of individuals who are presently involved in an invalid marriage. All Catholics are required to follow Catholic Church Law in their decision to marry. If individuals chose to marry outside the Catholic Church or without proper permission of the Catholic Church, the marriage is not recognized by the Catholic Church and automatically denies an individual from the reception of the sacraments and the spiritual privilege of serving as a sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation. However, individuals still remain member of the faith community. Invalid marriages seem to be quite common and surface often when dealing with families, eg. the Baptism of a child. We invite those in such marital situations to contact a priest and determine how the marriage may be validated. Often times there was no previous marriage and the process is simple. If a former marriage is involved, the case requires more attention. If you have family members, friends, or neighbors who might not see this information, please share this article with them. It can be a form of evangelization, sharing the good news with someone who might just need a simple invitation.

St. Colman 27th Annual Calendar Party & Fashion Show will be held on Friday, April 1st in the school cafeteria. Anyone interested in sponsoring a table or just joining us for a night of fun, please call Mary Jo Meyer at 412-824-5099.
