No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

EASTER SUNDAY

If you want to find out what Easter does not mean, just spend some time watching or reading the news. All of the negative and depressing news you see or read is not a sign that there is new life to be found in our world. No, Easter will not be found in the nightly newscast. We find Easter where we find men and women alive with love for neighbors, near and far. We find Easter when we see people caring for each other in all of the difficulties that life can bring. We find Easter when we see parents taking care of their children, even though it means giving up so much, so often. Whenever you and I bring some genuine life to another person, we are helping people to believe in the new life that Jesus offers through the earth-shattering event we call the Resurrection. Easter calls us to live with a positive and encouraging attitude. On this Easter day may we allow the risen Jesus to bring new life to us. And may we, in turn, bring that new life to one another.

EASTER SUNDAY

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel instructs us Jesus "had to rise from the dead." the dying we experience with unmet expectations in marriage and parenting is normal to family life. Families must rise above disappointments and be Easter people all year long.

No Excuse Sunday

To make it possible for everyone to attend Church next Sunday, we re going to have a special "No Excuse Sunday."

...Cots will be placed in the foyer for those who say: "Sunday is my only day to sleep in."

...We will have steel helmets for those who say: "The roof would cave in if I ever came to Church."

...Blankets will be furnished for those who say: "It is too cold, and fans for those who say it is too hot."

...We will have hearing aids for those who say: "The priest speaks too softly" and cotton for those who say: "He preaches too loudly."

...Scorecards will be available for those who wish to list the hypocrites present.

...Some relatives will be in attendance for those who like to go visiting on Sundays. There will be TV dinners for those who can't go to Church and cook dinner too.

...Finally, the sanctuary will be decorated with both Christmas poinsettias and Easter lilies for those who have never seen the Church without them.

OR MAYBE...JUST ATTEND AS A SIGN OF FAITH IN THANKSGIVING FOR GOD'S GOODNESS AND LOVE IN OUR LIFE, AS AN EFFORT TOLIVE THAT FAITH AND TO EXPERIENCE THE SPECIAL PRESENCE OF THE LORD IN THE EUCHARIST.

EASTER BLESSING OF THE FAMILIES

This afternoon, Bishops Zubik, William Waltersheid, and William Winter will welcome families of the Diocese of Pittsburgh to their Annual Blessing of Families at St. Paul Cathedral, Oakland, beginning at 2:00pm. As they greet and bless your family personally they affirm and support you as a household of love and witness to The Faith. Come and experience the Bishops' expression of appreciation for the gift that you are, and the gifts that you bring to our Diocesan Faith Community. Each family attending will receive a special memento to take home and the children will receive a sweet treat.

Catholic Hospice is reaching out & inviting you to consider volunteering with us in support of our pro-life mission towards end of life care. We would love to have people who share our mission and are open to encountering one of life's most rewarding experiences, join our volunteer team. If Patient Care is not your primary interest we are welcoming people who enjoy fundraising, community events or clerical work to join our team as well. Volunteer training for Patient Care will be held on Tuesday, April 22, 2014 from 9:00am to 4:00pm at our office in Wexford. If you are interested in learning more about our volunteer opportunities, please call Robyn Aguzzi at (724) 933-6222 or email raguzzi@catholicospicepgh.org. For additional information on Catholic Hospice go to www.catholicospicepgh.org.

LADIES OF CHARITY
