SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Liturgical Capsules that are Not Hard to Swallow Reverence in Our Celebration of the Eucharist

Dress: What we wear can be an indication of our attitude toward something. The clothes that we choose to wear to church can reveal our respect for what is happening there. God deserves the best and when we worship Him in an appropriate way that truly expresses our reverence. Too casual a form of dress can reveal that the Mass is not a special occasion but possibly just something we have to do. It has become a routine. It has been argued that God does not really care what we wear and this is true, but worship is the reverence we give to Him. So we wear clothes that reveal our reverence and our desire to give the Lord our best?

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share: "If Jesus gives us His peace, and peace is what we all want in our communities and our lives, why do we find it so hard to come by? Could it be that we have not learned everything that the Holy Spirit, who was sent by the Father in Jesus' name, has taught us? There is no better or more needed time than now to open our ears, our minds and our hearts to what the Spirit has to say." Deacon Herb Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

LITTLE ROCK SCRIPTURE STUDY
 Little Rock Scripture Study - 10 week series on Exodus begins Monday, May 2nd in the small meeting room of the school cafeteria from 6:30-8:00pm with an introduction. Study set fee is $15. The Exodus is the central event of the Old Testament. Its themes of liberation wilderness Passover covenant and God's dwelling are central for the whole Bible. It tells the story of God calling Moses to be the prophet through whom God will lead the people to freedom from slavery in Egypt and their struggles to learn faithfulness in the wilderness where God makes covenant with them. The 10 Commandments form the ethical core of this covenant while the instructions for building a tent of worship accentuate God's intention to dwell in the midst of the people. For information call Ted at 412-596-2544.
