THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Stay with us.” These words marked a turning point in the disciples’ faith journey in today’s gospel. They began their walk dejected and disappointed. They finished with enthusiastic faith. Everything in the story is directly applicable to our life as Christians today. We meet Christ in the scriptures; The word of God brings us to Christ. Every Mass brings us both scripture and the breaking of the bread. Full participation should deepen our faith. With a deeper faith we recognize the presence of Christ in our daily activities. He stays with us through the entire journey. Peter today spoke of life as a grateful response for our ransom from sin. The goodness, generosity and concern we show for others is an appropriate grateful response to the Christ who stays with us every step of life’s journey.

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

A Family Perspective

In today’s gospel the disciples were returning home “downcast” they did not recognize Jesus walking with them. In our homes, we sometimes get so overwhelmed with responsibilities; we don’t see God with us. Today’s gospel tells us to stop and open our eyes to the blessings we are to one another.
