FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Easter message of life in the risen Christ continues in today's gospel of the vine and the branches. Apart from Jesus the vine, there can be no Spirit-life for his disciples. The letter of John reminds us that it is this same Spirit that enables us to recognize Jesus as God's Son and to keep His commandments. The Spirit at work in Acts moves the recently converted Paul to present his message in Jerusalem regardless of the personal danger involved. The work of the church continues in each generation of Christians. As vines attached to the branch we are commissioned to carry the message and live a Spirit-filled life: to believe in God's Son and to love our neighbor in patience, kindness generosity and self-control.
