FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

One of the most beautiful titles attributed to Jesus is the image described as the Good Shepherd. Each year of this Sunday we hear St. John describe a different aspect of that image. Jesus is seen as the “sheep gate”, the way to the Father. If we follow his way, there is no challenge too great in our effort to live the message of Christianity. Jesus is also the model shepherd in his spirit of dedication and willingness to surrender his life for his sheep. He reminds us of our call to service to the community in their needs, concerns, joys and sorrow. Jesus as Shepherd invites his flock to hear his voice and follow his lead. Each of us has been gifted with the Spirit that we might answer the call and reflect in our daily lives the image of the Good Shepherd.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Today we celebrate World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Remember those priests, brothers and sisters who have touched your life and make a special effort to pray for them.

Loving God, You plant seeds of hope and faithfulness within our hearts and water them with your grace and mercy. On this day of prayer, give joy to your servants and help us to patiently tend what you have sown. May our lives be abundantly fruitful for your kingdom, where you live and reign with the Risen Christ and the Spirit of wisdom and light. AMEN.

WILL I BE ASSIGNED TO ST. COLMAN
ONCE I AM ORDAINED?

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS , by Herb Riley

This is a great question and one that I wonder about every day. While it is my most sincere desire to be assigned to St. Colman, I along with my brother deacon candidates, have pledged allegiance to the Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, and we will answer his call whenever and whenever it comes. So while it is my desire to be assigned to St. Colman, I could be assigned to any local parish or institution where the Bishop believes I am most needed. It is, however, possible that I could be assigned to St. Colman for my liturgical work at masses, but be assigned to an institution for my ministry of service to the poor and sick. I won’t know the answer to this question until Ordination, so pray that Bishop Zubik decides that I can be best utilized here at St. Colman. Next time, the question, “Who Does a Deacon Report To (or in other words, Who Is and Who isn’t the Deacon’s Boss!)?

“Sanctuary Lamps”

The Sanctuary Lamps are lit this week in memory of Joe Yates as requested by his Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren

Moving into or out of the Parish?

Parishioners who have a change of address, either coming into or moving out of the Parish, should notify the Parish Secretary as soon as possible. It cost us 50 to 99 cents every time a packet of envelopes or a Parish Share is returned to us. Newly Married? Also, newly Married Couples are reminded that they, too, must register as a “New” family if they are living within the parish boundaries and intend to belong to St. Colman’s Parish. Once you are married, you are no longer registered on your parents census card. Please register with the Parish Office as a separate family as soon as possible.
