No matter what your present or past status in the Catholic Church. No matter what your current family or marital situation. No matter what your past or present religious affiliation. No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Our reading from 1 Peter today describes the church as a spiritual building constructed of living stones with Jesus Christ as the cornerstone. Christ is the church's sole foundation because he alone is God's full revelation remaining forever in the gospel's words, our way, truth, and life. In that spiritual edifice wherein we are all living stones, there are a variety of ministries, all contributing to the community's welfare. Our reading Acts today recounts the beginning of diverse forms of service in the church. The scriptures challenge us today to meet Christ in the faces of others and to be the living stones of service and love to each encounter.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

A Family Perspective

Jesus tells us in the gospel: I am in the Father and the Father is in me! The point is: God is in each one of us, in our relationships and in our homes. The vocation of the Christian family is to live the divine gift which is already in and around us.

ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Thursday, May 29th is the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord, a Holyday of Obligation for all Catholics. Masses will be offered on Wednesday, May 28th at 6:00 pm, Thursday, May 29th at 8:30 am and 7:00 pm. Join the faithful in honoring Our Lord on this feast.

“Sanctuary Lamps”

The Sanctuary lamps are lit this week in memory of Luigi & Eleanora Guidici as requested by Marci Mason and Elizabeth Evancho as requested by Joe Evancho & Children.

ARE YOU CALLED TO SERVE?

The Diocese of Pittsburgh is initiating the nomination and application process for admitting a new class of interested and qualified Catholic men into the Deacon Formation Program. Prospective candidates should be between the ages of 30 and 59 years old, in full communion with the Church, active in their faith, and hold a least a bachelor's degree. They should consult their pastor about submitting a nomination on their behalf, the deadline for nominations is June 30th. Applications without a pastor's nomination will not be considered. More information about the diaconate is posted on the diocesan website at www.diopitt.org. Questions may be directed to deacon@diopitt.org or call 412-456-3124.

HOME WITH THE LORD: Your prayers are requested for the repose of the souls of William “Bill” Lichius and Robert C. Kelly. May they rest in the peace and the joy of the Lord.
