SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Christianity teaches us that salvation is a “group affair.” No one is saved because he or she has developed an intense personal relationship with God while ignoring the rest of the human community. In Christianity “to be saved” and “to be fully human” include the development of authentic relationships with other persons. It is mystically fitting that the God of the Christian Scripture is not an “isolated individual.” Our God is a Trinity, a mysterious blend of three persons. The very nature of godness, therefore implies “interpersonal relationships”, some sort of inner communication within the very substance of the divine. We can learn a lesson from the Trinity. Christianity demands that we support one another, depend on one another and love one another. Our God, the Creator, needs and supports the Redeemer and the Sanctifier.

In “On Mission for The Church Alive!” each of us - priest, religious and lay - has our own distinct role, our own distinct vocation. “On Mission for The Church Alive! will succeed if we are open to the prompting of the Holy Spirit to apply our gifts in service to the Church. Don't let your child become a statistic!

80% of kids stop practicing the faith at some point during college. There is a way to keep our kids (grandkids) connected to the faith. Go to www.diopitt.org/newmanconnection and fill out the quick online form. We only need their first and last name and the school they will be attending. A Catholic campus minister at their college will be able to reach out to them and invite them to participate in campus ministry. It takes less than 2 minutes to do it and it might be the most important thing you do for your loved one as they graduate high school!
