SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

In today's gospel, Jesus is portrayed engaging his disciples in a challenging conversation: "If you love me...." Having issued the challenge, he then explains the how and what behind the "if". If a disciple loves Jesus and professes that love with words, those words are to be translated into and supported by obedience to the commands he has given. The works of love are simple. A quick scan of the good news will suggest several: to love one another as Jesus loved, to lead through service, to serve others selflessly, to cherish all others as brothers and sisters of the same parent -God, to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to shelter the homeless, to heal the sick, to welcome the stranger, to offer hospitality to those who cannot return the kindness, to forgive as we have been forgiven and to daily embrace the cross. To meet these challenges John reminds us today that the Spirit of Truth is always with us. The demands of love define for us particularly who we are as a faith community of St. Colman.

WHO DOES A DEACON REPORT TO?

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

by Herb Riley

A deacon reports directly to the Bishop of the Diocese. His assignments and duties are determined by the Bishop, based on the needs of the Diocese and the deacon's strengths and weaknesses. While he reports to the Bishop, he works under the supervision of the Pastor and priests at the parish where he is assigned for his liturgical duties, and/or the people in charge of the institution where he performs his work of charity and justice. So while he reports to the Bishop, he may work under the direction of several individuals.

CALLING ALL MEN OF THE PARISH!

Join us Saturday, June 4th at 8am in front of the Tabernacle for our Catholic Men's Fellowship group here at St. Colman's. Our group meets from 8-9:30am and empowers the men of our parish with prayer, song, fellowship, reflection and nourishment in the word and faith. In an informal gathering over coffee, donuts or bagels we take on what it means to be a Catholic Man in today's world. Our schedule for the summer is as follows: 6/4,6/18,7/9,7/23,8/6,8/20. June 4th's lesson entitled "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" deals with Man and God and our prayer life. I look forward to seeing some new faces as we continue to Fight the Good Fight for our Lord. Please consider joining us for one of our sessions, and look for further announcements to come related to our group.

Your Help is Needed

As Christians we are called to perform the Corporal Works of Mercy. One of which is taking care of each other. A young mother of five in our parish is experiencing serious medical problems. We are reaching out to our faith community for support of this family. Any donation monetary or otherwise would be greatly appreciated. Red Robin Restaurant (where Amy is employed) has set up a fund in her name. A mistake was made in our previous bulletins, the fund was not set up through North American Martyrs Church although they are doing their own fundraising for this young mother. Checks can be made out to the Amy Andrews Medical Fund and brought to the rectory office. Thanks to all of you for your support.
