SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Christianity teaches us that salvation is a “group affair.” No one is saved because he or she has developed an intense personal relationship with God while ignoring the rest of the human community. In Christianity “to be saved” and “to be fully human” include the development of authentic relationships with other persons. It is mystically fitting that the God of the Christian Scriptures is not an “isolated individual.” Our God is a Trinity, a mysterious blend of three persons. The very nature of goodness, therefore implies “interpersonal relationships”, some sort of inner communication within the very substance of the divine. We can learn a lesson from the Trinity. Christianity demands that we support one another, depend on one another and love one another. Our God, the Creator, needs and supports the Redeemer and the Sanctifier.

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share: From Deacon Herb

“We join our earthly sufferings to Christ’s, so that as the Father glorified Jesus after His crucifixion, we too, as children and co-heirs of the Holy Trinity, might be glorified with Him one day.” Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE

What is the initiative needed?

- ◆ All Catholics are called to evangelize. Pope Francis invites us to seek out and welcome those who have left the Church or are far from God.
- ◆ In order to encourage others to be friends of Jesus, each of us must deepen our relationship with Him so that we can learn Jesus, love Jesus and live Jesus.
- ◆ Due to changing demographics in our parishes and the declining number of priests, we can no longer maintain the status quo.

Who will participate?

- ◆ All parishes and schools will participate in On Mission for the Church Alive!
- ◆ All laity, religious and clergy in the Diocese of Pittsburgh will take part.

NEED FOR NEW ALTAR SERVERS

We have a real need for new Altar Servers at our 6pm Saturday and 5:30pm Sunday Masses.
