SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Constancy in prayer does not mean continuous prayer. Rather it is a prayer that is unending, an attitude of dependence and openness to God that makes an ongoing relationship a normal part of life. This type of prayer appears in all three readings today. Gathered in the upper room in anticipation of the coming of the Spirit, the apostles and the women followers of Jesus lived in a climate of prayer. Jesus in John's Gospel in his oneness with the Father typifies the spirit of prayer as he prays in a special way for his followers. The first letter of Peter encourages us to thank God in prayer. Prayer is a state of mind not simply something done at stated moments. All of us have to give ourselves regular fixed points to turn to God formally, but God is met in countless ways in the course of every day - - in human dealings, in nature, in solitude. Our prayer is constant when we view reality from the vantage point of faith. Realizing the presence of God places prayer at the center of our lives, whether in the middle of a forest or in a crowded airport. Be aware that God walks with you every step of your life.

PENTECOST RED

Pentecost Sunday, June 11th & 12th

Next to the great event of the Sacred Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil), Pentecost is the most important day of the liturgical year. Pentecost is marked by the color RED since it reminds us of the fire of the Holy Spirit who filled the hearts of the disciples on the first Pentecost recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. We invite and encourage everyone to wear a RED OUTFIT of some sort to Mass on Pentecost Sunday, so that we can fill the church with a sea of RED!

We are reaching out to our faith community for support of this family. Any donation monetary or otherwise would be greatly appreciated. Red Robin Restaurant (where Amy is employed) has set up a fund in her name. A mistake was made in our previous bulletins, the fund was not set up through North American Martyrs Church although they are doing their own fundraising for this young mother.
