No matter what your present or past status in the Catholic Church. No matter what your current family or marital situation. No matter what your past or present religious affiliation. No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

THE IMPORTANCE OF MASS

Can someone be a good person without coming to church on Sunday? The answer to that question is "yes." A person can be kind, loving, generous, forgiving, patient, trustworthy and much more. But can someone be a good Christian without coming to Sunday Mass? The answer to that question is "absolutely not!" A person cannot be a good Christian without joining his or her fellow Christians at Sunday Mass. For Christianity is not primarily about being kind, loving, generous, etc. - - - though, of course a Christian should be those things. Christianity is not just about being "nice." Christianity is about following a person. Christianity is about a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. The way we come in contact with Jesus Christ is through his church, especially when the church gathers for the celebration of Sunday Mass. Sunday is the day the Lord rose from the dead. Sunday is the day he most often appeared to his disciples. Sunday is the day the Lord comes to be with us in a powerful way as we gather for Mass. As the late Pope John Paul II wrote. "it is crucially important that all the faithful should be convinced that they cannot live their faith or share fully in the life of the Christian community unless they take part regularly in the Sunday Eucharistic assembly." The Mass is essential for our Christian life; without it our faith withers and dies. As a great writer put it, "The devil dances for joy when a Catholic stops going to Mass."

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: A Family Perspective

The widow in today's gospel was in deep trouble. Her husband and her only son were dead. In that male dominated society woman owned nothing and were totally dependant on men for their livelihood. She would be reduced to begging. Restoring her son to life, Jesus also restored the woman to life.

LA ROCHE COLLEGE

La Roche College, a private, non-profit, Catholic, co-educational institution in Pittsburgh's North Hills, invites high school juniors and seniors on Sunday, July 13, 2013, to its Open House to explore campus and educational opportunities.
