PENTECOST SUNDAY

The story of the first Christian Pentecost began in fear and ended in joy. Or, more accurately, Pentecost has not ended yet. For today, we live in the time of this powerful Spirit. On that first day, the disciples crowded together in an out-of-the-way room, unsure and fearful. It took an unmistakable manifestation of God's power to shake off fear and replace it with bold proclamation. And so it came to pass. We are told in Acts that the descending Spirit came as a strong wind and rested over the disciples. The second reading tells us that the Spirit generates harmony and unity in the Church. No act of faith can be made, no good work accomplished, no ministry undertaken without the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit. All who are Church are one in the Spirit of unity. The people called to undertake this task and mission are called the Church - that's us: the faithful of St. Colman

Your Help is Needed

As Christians we are called to perform the Corporal Works of Mercy. One of which is taking care of each other. A young mother of five in our parish is experiencing serious medical problems. We are reaching out to our faith community for support of this family. Any donation monetary or otherwise would be greatly appreciated. Red Robin Restaurant (where Amy is employed) has set up a fund in her name. A mistake was made in our previous bulletins, the fund was not set up through North American Martyrs Church although they are doing their own fund-raising for this young mother. Checks can be made out to the Amy Andrews Medical Fund and brought to the rectory office. Thanks to all of you for your support.

A SUMMER BLESSING

May you walk with God this summer, In whatever you do, wherever you go. Walking with God means...walking with honesty and with courage, walking with love and respect and concern for the feeling of others. May you talk to God this summer, every day and in every situation. Talking with God means...praying words of praise for the beauty of creation, saying prayers of thanks for friends and good times, asking God's help in all your decisions, expressing your sorrow when you have failed. May you walk with God every day.

Amen
