SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Christianity teaches us that salvation is a "group affair." No one is saved because he or she has developed an intense personal relationship with God while ignoring the rest of the human community. In Christianity "to be saved" and "to be fully human" include the development of authentic relationships with other persons. It is mystically fitting that the God of the Christian Scriptures is not an "isolated individual." Our God is a Trinity, a mysterious blend of three persons. The very nature of Godness, therefore implies "interpersonal relationships", some sort of inner communication within the very substance of the divine. We can learn a lesson from the Trinity. Christianity demands that we support one another, depend on one another and love one another. Our God, the Creator, needs and supports the Redeemer and the Sanctifier.

HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

A Family Perspective

As the Father "sent his son into the world" so parents send their children into the world "so that the world might be saved." This is the missionary role of the Christian family. Your family is a school where your children develop convictions which enable them to make a difference in the world.

Happy Father's Day

Fathering is an awesome responsibility and not for the weak or transient. Today we recognize our need for fathers to stand boldly in the face of the powerful forces in our culture which threaten our children. Today we pray for the grace to be courageous fathers.

PARISH CALENDAR JULY 2014-JUNE 2015
