THE TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In the first reading the house of David and Jerusalem look upon an unknown sufferer as they grieve over the one they have pierced. Suffering is a central topic of the Gospel as well as Jesus turns his disciples away from an exalted notion of Messiah to one of suffering. It is a pain which they themselves will one day endure as well. Christ bore his cross in obedience to the Father for love of the world. It is interesting that the destiny of Jesus' followers encompasses the same fate. Cross bearing for Jesus involved many things, among them the hardships of his earthy ministry, yet he gave his all for the sheep without a shepherd." In our lives we don't have to seek the cross. It will find us. Our response is important. Can we accept it in faith? Illness, poverty, financial loss, rejection, giving of ourselves for others-the cross is certain to come in one way or another. We pray for the grace to bear it with love. Cross bearing is woven into the fabric of discipleship but Jesus has shown us the way through each cross to life, resurrection, and resolve.

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share "Hatred only begets more hatred that inevitably leads to a great mourning by many. Mary and Joseph and the followers of Jesus grieved over his senseless death, as do many of all faiths and all beliefs grieve over the tragic loss of life of our sisters and brothers in Orlando, and everywhere that it occurs throughout our world." Don't let your child become a statistic!

80% of kids stop practicing the faith at some point during college. There is a way to keep our kids (grandkids) connected to the faith. Go to www.diopitt.org/newmanconnection and fill out the quick online form. We only need their first and last name and the school they will be attending. A Catholic campus minister at their college will be able to reach out to them and invite them to participate in campus ministry. It takes less than 2 minutes to do it and it might be the most important thing you do for your loved one as they graduate high school!
