No matter what your present or past status in the Catholic Church. No matter what your current family or marital situation. No matter what your past or present religious affiliation. No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Today's feast reminds us of three transformations. The first is the mysterious changing of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Jesus chose the most ordinary and common things to be the way in which he comes to us as a source of nourishment. As Catholics we have been celebrating the Eucharist for two thousand years. The second occurs when we take that Body and Blood of Christ into our very selves. When, in faith, we receive the Eucharist, we open ourselves to the life-changing presence of Jesus. We as a community become united as nothing else could ever unite us. We are brought together in a union by the Lord himself. We become the Body of Christ. The third transformation happens through our union with Christ and with one another; we are sent to transform the world. We bring the transforming power of God's love to all those in need of such a wonderful gift.

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

A Family Perspective

Parenting is a Eucharistic activity because from the first moment of conception children consume us - our blood, energy, time and resources. If we don't sacrifice ourselves, our children would not have life. This is the priesthood of parenting. Christ is present in this self-sacrifice.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

On the weekend of June 28th-29th the Annual Peter's Collection will be taken. This annual collection enables the Holy Father to respond with emergency financial assistance to those throughout the world who suffer from war, oppression, disease and natural disasters. It is a powerful way for Catholics around the world to assist those most in need. Please be as generous as possible.

A NOTE OF THANKS

A note of gratitude was received from Sr. Gratia and Sr. Mercy for the kind welcome and generosity of the members of St. Colman in response to their appeal for the work of the Sisters of Mary Immaculate.

NEWLY BAPTIZED

We welcome to the faith community of St. Colman Parish: Decklan Frederick Onderick, Cora Elise Thompson, Gabriella Marie Zapata, Owen Charles McBride, Lydia Rose Gattrell, Jakob Robert Cross and Myles Andrew Larson-Edwards.
