ST. COLMAN MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish community of St. Colman, actively seek to proclaim the glory of God through worship, the Eucharist, and service to others. Through this community of faith, we endeavor to spread the Word and the Good News of Jesus Christ. We unite with the inspiration of the Holy Spirit and are guided by Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior.

No matter what your present or past status in the Catholic Church. No matter what your current family or marital situation. No matter what your past or present religious affiliation. No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus set out to save people, not to win arguments. Today, his compassionate words and actions reveal the deepest truth of his life and of God’s life, too. For God did not make death or desire the destruction of the living. The way of compassion so clearly explained in the Book of Wisdom is reflected in the generous companionship of Jesus as he walks with desperate Jairus and is approached by an equally desperate woman who pushes herself forward in such an unseemingly manner. Jesus does not stand on ceremony: he does not claim special privileges. He leans toward Jairus, toward the woman, toward the child. This is how he wins hearts. Paul in the second reading encourages the Corinthians to abound in charity and demonstrate compassion in their lives. Both Jesus and Paul challenge us today to reflect compassion and charity in our lives especially in the unexpected opportunities that come our way.

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share: From Deacon Herb:

“Jesus gave everything for us so that we will have all that we need. We too are called to give to meet the needs of others; not everything that we have like Christ, but from our abundance. Find someone in need and help them in whatever way you can.” Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

LITURGICAL REMINDER

During the recitation of the Profession of Faith at Mass at the words, “by the power of the Holy Spirit...became Man,” a bow of the head is the appropriate liturgical gesture. On the solemnities of the Annunciation of the Lord and Christmas, all kneel for these words. Also, before receiving Communion, the communicant gives a bow of the head as a sign of reverence before the sacrament (both before the body of Christ and before the blood of Christ).

PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS

The presentation of the gifts (bread and wine) at the beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist is an opportunity for the faithful to participate actively in the celebration of the Mass. The designated individuals represent the community in this service role. Seriously consider this ministry. Simply inform the usher before Mass of your intention. It would be appropriate for family members to perform this service as a group, especially if the intention of the Mass is for a loved one..

Sponsor Certificates for Baptism & Confirmation

Anyone needing a sponsor certificate must be registered in the Parish for at least 3 months, have all of their Sacraments (If married, be in a Catholic Marriage), attend Mass regularly and support the Parish.

"LITURGICAL CAPSULES THAT AREN'T HARD TO SWALLOW"
REVERENCE IN OUR CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

PARTICIPATION-Our reverence to God is also expressed in the way we participate in the ritual acts of the Mass. We want to give God our total selves during the Mass. To participate with all our senses and to give our full attention reveals our respect and devotion. When we respond enthusiastically to the prayers, when we listen attentively to the readings and when we sing with all our hearts, we tell God how much we really love Him. We must ask ourselves, "Do we fully participate during the Mass, or do we simply sit there uninvolved and maybe even bored because of routine?"

PRAYER CHAIN
LADIES OF CHARITY

The Ladies of Charity invite ALL parishioners to join them in a prayer chain. This ministry requires no meetings, no schedules and no committees. You simply pray for those requesting prayers at your own pace in your own environment. If you are interested in participating in this ministry, please contact Marci Mason at 412-215-4289 or email marciart.marciartsy@verizon.net. God Bless. If you would like to have the St. Colman Prayer Chain pray for a person in need of prayer, please call or email Marci Mason (412)215-4289, marciart.marciartsy@verizon.net or call the rectory office at 412-823-2564.
