THE THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Every journey has a measure of the unknown. This was true of Christ as he moved toward Jerusalem. It is true of every Christian who accepts the radical call and who, as Paul states makes his journey as the "Spirit walk." Every day of our life presents new challenges, new problems of faith, new moral choices. Luke speaks of Jesus that He set His face for Jerusalem. In the face of the unknown, Christ never wavered. Our age has many difficulties with commitment. Great hesitation surrounds any life commitment. Many are broken. It is a regrettable fact of our times. True love does not shrink from commitment. To opt for God in our life is a very important choice. If there is one thing we need today, it is a witness of stability, to strive continually to walk God's path, to move toward the Lord's goal and to make choices based on his directives. We may not always succeed but with the willingness to build on what has been started, our journey of commitment continues.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:
A Family Perspective

Today's gospel reminds us once we set our "hand to the plow" of parenting and marriage, "we cannot look back." This is what commitment means: we have said YES to what was, what is, and to what can be.
