No matter what your present or past status in the Catholic Church. No matter what your current family or marital situation. No matter what your past or present religious affiliation. THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus says, "ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." when we hear the word "laborer", we immediately think that Jesus is asking us to pray for more priests and religious brothers and sisters. But we are really praying that God will send out anyone who can help in any way to bring men and women to a fuller understanding of living out the Good News. Every parish needs an increasing involvement of parishioners in the work of the parish. Such individuals are really a lift-giving gift to the church. The future of each community does not rest merely on having more priests and religious. Rather, the future of the church depends on its members responding to their Baptismal call to be bearers of the Good News. Especially with the shortage of clergy, this becomes critical for the church. Examine the gifts, talents and abilities which are your blessings from God and determine if you can contribute to the service of God's people.

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share "We all carry heavy burdens and crosses at some time during our lives. But as we look back on them as part of our past, would we trade any of them for the cross that Christ carried for us?" Deacon Herb Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

Don't let your child become a statistic!

80% of kids stop practicing the faith at some point during college. There is a way to keep our kids (grandkids) connected to the faith. Go to www.diopitt.org/newmanconnection and fill out the quick online form. We only need their first and last name and the school they will be attending. A Catholic campus minister at their college will be able to reach out to them and invite them to participate in campus ministry. It takes less than 2 minutes to do it and it might be the most important thing you do for your loved one as they graduate high school!
