THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Disappointment and failure seem to come to the fore this Sunday. Rejection is a very difficult thing to handle. It strikes at our self-esteem. How often we find ourselves in those situations. In a selection, I am bypassed and someone else is singled out. In friendship, someone else is preferred to me. In all of this there is often a deep sense of hurt. This came to Jesus from various quarters. As far as the townspeople were concerned, he was just too local to be important. But even Jesus' relatives thought "he was out of it." the Jewish leaders rejected him. We may never be hounded to death as Jesus was, but we will certainly suffer a sense of rejection. So did he. And that gives us great consolation. In the challenges of human existence, we can only do our best to meet the roadblocks and let Christ do the rest. We know our weaknesses but God writes straight with crooked lines. We do not always succeed, but with right motives and a believing heart, we never really fail.

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share: From Deacon Herb:

"Hatred, rooted in racism, bigotry and ignorance, goes against everything that Christ taught us and our country stands for. With God's grace and mercy we need to speak up for the rights and freedoms of all and to have the strength and courage to withstand the insults and persecutions that we face in doing so." Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

REACHING OUT TO THOSE LOOKING TO GET BACK INTO THE CHURCH: If you know of anyone who has fallen away from Church for any reason and is looking to come back, please let them know they are welcome and if they would like to speak to Fr. Jim or Deacon Herb we would be more than happy to spend some time with them.
