FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our faith teaches that through the graces of the Holy Spirit the Christian is set free as a child of God and is so destined for glory. This divine adoption through grace, this freedom, grants rights to the Christian, just as our freedom as Americans grants rights to us as citizens of the United States. But rights always imply responsibilities. Freedom from the perspective of St. Paul and the Gospel, is not a passive gift. With this gift and consequent rights we must work for the glory for which God has destined us. As Americans we have more freedom, more liberty and more guaranteed and protected rights, than any other people. If you travel to other parts of the world that fact becomes evident. To appreciate and maintain our freedom we must work for the rights that our founding fathers in a prayerful manner saw as being proper for all men and women. We must work to preserve our freedom. Our response to the message and challenge of Jesus Christ will assure that effort.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel is about missionaries. As Jesus received a mission, parents today accept the mission of raising a family. Parents are not alone in this exhausting and difficult mission. Today Jesus tells us "Come to me and I will give you rest."

INTERESTED IN YOUNG ADULT CHOIR?

Our Pastoral Council is exploring the idea of starting a young adult choir that would lead the music at occasional Masses. If you like to sing, or play a musical instrument and would be interested in being a part of this exciting new group for our Parish, please contact Ron Bachy at thebachyfamily@verizon.net. The idea is for this to be a youth/young adult driven ministry, but if others with instrumental talent are interested, please contact Ron.
