No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus says, "ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." When we hear the "laborer", we immediately think that Jesus is asking us to pray for more priests and religious brothers and sisters. But we are really praying that God will send out anyone who can help in any way to bring men and women to a fuller understanding of living out the Good News. Every parish needs an increasing involvement of parishioners in the work of the parish. Such individuals are really a life-giving gift to the church. The future of each community does not rest merely on having more priests and religious. Rather, the future of the church depends on its members responding to their Baptismal call to be the bearers of the Good News. Especially with the shortage of clergy, this becomes critical for the church. Examine the gifts, talents and abilities which are your blessings from God and determine if you can contribute to the service of God's people.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: A Family Perspective

Just like the seventy two disciples sent out by Jesus in today's gospel, families are expected to be MISSIONARIES. By our lives, words and life style we proclaim peace, commitment, fidelity and respect to a culture caught up with violence and gratification.
