FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our faith teaches us through the graces of the Holy Spirit the Christian is set free as a child of God and is so destined for glory. This divine adoption through grace, this freedom, grants rights to the Christian, just as our freedom as Americans grants rights to us as citizens of the United States. But rights always implies responsibilities. Freedom, from the perspective of St. Paul and the Gospel, is not a passive gift. With this gift and consequent rights we must work for the glory for which God has destined us. As Americans we have more freedom, more liberty and more guaranteed and protected rights, than any other people. If you travel to other parts of the world that fact becomes evident. To appreciate and maintain our freedom we must work for the rights that our founding fathers in a prayerful manner saw as being proper for all men and women. We must work to preserve our freedom. Our response to the message and challenge of Jesus Christ will assure that effort.

Thoughts to reflect on and share: “Jesus says, ‘come to me all you who are burdened, and I will give you rest, for I am meek and humble of heart’. Jesus is patiently waiting for each one of us to come to Him in the same way, with meek and humble hearts, and when we do, it is then he will release us from our burdens”. Deacon Herb read Zechariah 9:9-10, Romans 8:9, 11-13 and Matthew 11:25-30 Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

On Mission: Now What? The On Mission for The Church Alive! initiative is entering a new phase as we continue planning and working for the future of the Church of Pittsburgh. The On Mission Commission, a group of over 80 clergy, religious and lay members from across the diocese are studying the proposed parish groupings and considering the feedback gathered from recent parish surveys and town hall meetings. The Commission will offer recommendations that will eventually be shared with Bishop Zubik, who will make the ultimate determination. While final decisions have yet to be made, they are being discerned based upon the input you have provided. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more about your parish grouping and to stay informed.

LITURGICAL REMINDER

During the recitation of the Profession of Faith at Mass at the words, "by the power of the Holy Spirit...became man," a bow of the head is the appropriate liturgical gesture. Also, before receiving Communion, the communicant gives a bow of the head as a sign of reverence before the sacrament (both before the Body of Christ and before the Blood of Christ).
