SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

All three readings today challenge us to be patient. That's a tall order for a culture immersed in satellite dishes, fax machines, mobile phones, the Internet and compact discs filled with volumes of information.

Often we are in such a hurry that we don't take the time to look around us. Our hurry causes us to judge quickly. Patience, however, gives us the time to do God's work among the wheat and the weeds. Rather than judge the weeds as evil and lost causes, we are shown by God's example to wait patiently and lovingly for the final judgment which belongs to God alone. But while we wait for the harvest, we do not stand idly by. We need to see the work of God as our work. We need to temper justice with mercy. We need to show kindness and offer forgiveness. Any good harvest takes time and care to bear fruit. God gives us the grace to work miracles in the field.

Thoughts to reflect on and share: "We must be like the mustard seed, the smallest of all seeds. Though small when we begin, we need to constantly grow and develop our faith until it is like a giant tree, drawing many others to its welcoming shade." Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Building the Kingdom of God - In today's Gospel Jesus compares the kingdom of God to a number of different things: a man who sowed good seed, a mustard seed and yeast. Similarly, there is no one way to build up the kingdom of God in the Church. As the On Mission for The Church Alive! initiative progresses, our parishes will be restructured to better serve the needs of our communities, but the results will not be cookiecutter. In fact, each grouping of parishes will be asked to discover the best ways to build up the kingdom of God in light of the unique situations of their families and neighborhoods. In the end, it is hoped that the Church, the Body of Christ, will grow and flourish as we focus on how God is alive in us. What gifts has God planted in your heart that can allow his love and goodness to be shared with others? Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and stay informed.

WARMER WEATHER: With the warmer weather comes the desire to dress cooler for comfort. There is no problem with this approach to Sunday Mass but we must caution against getting too carried away. We can dress comfortably while still presenting our "Sunday Best." It is important to maintain a respectful attitude in behavior and dress when we celebrate prayerfully together in the liturgy.
