THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Christian prayer is an openness setting the Christian free to receive God.” Through living in a prayerful way, we allow God into our lives. We open our whole existence to God who is present everywhere but is concealed. The prayerful person allows God into every aspect of his or her life. Prayer is not just saying prayers, but living prayerfully - - living in God’s presence. When we find ourselves letting God into every aspect of our lives, we are then living in a prayerful way. “Prayer in the midst of life and opening ourselves silently to God should be the basic attitude for all prayer, taking place without strain and in all the different circumstances of everyday existence - when we are working, studying, relaxing, traveling or conversing. God is always there.”

Thoughts to Reflect on and Share “Jesus tells us, ‘everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.’ When we feel our prayers are not being answered, could it be because we ask for the wrong things; we seek things other than God; and we knock on all the wrong doors? Ask for what is good for our souls; seek the kingdom of God and knock on Jesus’ door of the church.” Deacon Herb Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.
