SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
 Wisdom is not the same as intelligence nor is a smart person necessarily a wise one. Wisdom directs knowledge properly in life. It understands what is best for oneself and for others and then works to attain it. Solomon, in today's first reading, asks for this gift to arrive at correct and just decisions in guiding his people. Wisdom in today's gospel lies in appreciating the value of God's reign and then sacrificing everything to be a part of it. True wisdom is found in living fully every stage of our Christian call. The Christian message is unparalleled as a way of life, demanding certainly, but full of peace and hope. Be wise, live the message and experience the greatest wisdom: the gift of Jesus.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
 A Family Perspective
 The man in today's gospel "sold all he had" for the treasure he found. Family relationships are "treasures" that demand our total personal investment. Invest yourself today in the "treasure" of your family.

WARMER WEATHER: with the warmer weather comes the desire to dress cooler for comfort. There is no problem with this approach to Sunday Mass but we must caution against getting too carried away. We can dress comfortably while still presenting our "Sunday Best." It is important to maintain a respectful attitude in behavior and dress when we celebrate prayerfully together in the liturgy.

INTERESTED IN YOUNG ADULT CHOIR?
 Our Pastoral Council is exploring the idea of starting a young adult choir that would lead the music at occasional Masses. If you like to sing, or play a musical instrument and would be interested in being a part of this exciting new group for our Parish, please contact Ron Bachy at thebachyfamily@verizon.net. The idea is for this to be a youth/young adult driven ministry, but if others with instrumental talent are interested, please contact Ron.

DIOCESAN CHOIR AUDITIONS

Auditions for the 2014-2015 Diocesan Choir season will soon be held. The Choir, under the direction of Fr. Jim Chepponis, Music Director for the Diocese of Pittsburgh, sings for the major Diocesan events at St. Paul's Cathedral throughout the year. Currently there are openings in the soprano, alto, tenor and bass sections. In addition to being good singers, potential members must be capable sight-readers due to limited rehearsal schedule, and at least 18 years of age. Rehearsals are held at St. John Capistran Church in Upper St. Clair. Audition times may be scheduled by calling Doris Anne in the Diocesan Music Office (412-456-3042) before August 19th.
