No matter what your personal history, age background, race or color. You are invited, welcomed, accepted and loved at St. Colman Catholic Church.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we are reminded in the strongest way how many gifts the Lord wishes to give us. We are urged to accept the love God continuously offers to us. We are called to return that love to God and we are called to love one another as deeply as is humanly possible. When we allow love to penetrate every aspect of our lives, we will know the fullness of life. Everyone of us has the chance to live an abundant life. Such discipline includes many things such as a forgiving and compassionate heart, an open and receptive spirit, a generous use of our time and resources. And so when we are choosing how we want to live, we should want the very best lives we can have. God wants to feed us in so many different ways. May we all seek the fullness of life that can only come through accepting God's love and giving that love to others every day of our lives.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

The apostles were just being practical when they asked Jesus to "dismiss the crowds to go buy food." Jesus knew there is always enough when we place our trust in the Father, even with just five loaves and fishes. Trust is the bridge to miracles.

INTERESTED IN YOUNG ADULT CHOIR?

Our Pastoral Council is exploring the idea of starting a young adult choir that would lead the music at occasional Masses. If you like to sing, or play a musical instrument and would be interested in being a part of this exciting new group for our Parish, please contact Ron Bachy at thebachyfamily@verizon.net. The idea is for this to be a youth/young adult driven ministry, but if others with instrumental talent are interested, please contact Ron.

HOME WITH THE LORD: Your prayers are requested for the repose of the souls of Lawrence Hanley, Frank Milko and James Payne. May they rest in the peace and the joy of the Lord
