THE NINETEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

During every step of our life's journey, we need to have the support of others. Others give us hope and the encouragement we need to continue our life's journey, especially when that journey gets tough. Jesus, who is well aware of our needs, promises us that he will give us the support and life-giving friendship that we need in order to have a life that is worth living. He offers his very self to us as the Bread of Life. The Eucharist is the sacrament by which we are mysteriously but really united with Jesus. But in order to have this access to Jesus and His friendship we need a life of prayer also. Prayer fosters that closeness. We open ourselves up to the love and compassion Jesus wishes to offer us. We begin to see the world through the eyes of Christ. Knowing that we have someone whom we can count on is so important. Through prayer we have the power to let our closest friend be none other than Jesus Christ himself.
