TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus entrusted the early leadership of his followers to the apostle Peter. He was empowered to shepherd in the model of service that Jesus had lived. He was charged to spread the mysteries of faith and challenge the people to live a Christ-centered life. As committed members of the faithful we have a role of leadership also, a role that demands a choice. We have the task and mission of living inside our faith. Each Sunday we pray together for the strength and wisdom to adhere to the values that keeps us of one mind and one heart as we live within a changing world. This week decide to live one value that expresses our faith such as forgiveness or compassion. We must also answer Jesus' question of today's gospel: "Who do you say that I am?" Our own answer will describe our faith. It will also describe the life we lead in this world and in the next.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

Like Jesus in today's gospel, we are seen by others in different ways. Perhaps the name our family gives us is closest to our true identity. They know us best. Who do they say you are?
