THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
The Wisdom of the Old Testament tells us that it is the humble and poor in spirit that receive God's blessing. In the Gospel, Christ states that pride and arrogance are a barrier to God's grace. The liturgy today calls us to humility and to attentiveness to the humble. It is a virtue about which we hear little today, perhaps because it is so much at odds with self-determination, human ambition and aggressiveness. But it is too dominant a scriptural value to be bypassed. However, vaguely or confusedly understood, the truth is clear. Humility calls us to turn our lives over to God and recognize that all we are and all we do derives ultimately from him.

Thoughts to reflect on and share: "The true way of being Christ like is to live a life of humility."; "Deacon Herb Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook."

THE CHIMBOTE FOUNDATION: a bridge of love, hope and faith: Bishop John Wright of Pittsburgh began the mission in Chimbote, Peru in the 1960's. Several priests from Pittsburgh were the pioneers who went to Chimbote to found the mission. They were joined by Sisters of Mercy and the Vincentian Sisters of Charity. The center for social works has become a regionally recognized multi-service health and education facility consisting of a maternity hospital, an outpatient clinic, a clinical laboratory, and an orphanage. The doctors and staff treat an average of 17,000 patients & deliver 300 babies every month, offering compassionate care in a faith-filled Catholic environment. There is an envelope with your August packet for this donation.
