THE TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Today's teaching on the permanent and indissoluble character of Christian marriage is as inspirational to some as it is painful for others. There are those in every Sunday assembly who have lived the ideal with generosity and intensity. Others have endured great suffering because that ideal could no longer be lived. Yet in the church there is room for everyone. The church must continue to proclaim this teaching on marriage. It not only comes from Christ but its wisdom lends itself to building up the human family, the church and society. On the other hand, the church suffers with those who have it impossible to live this commitment. Human weakness tells us that we all fall short in one way or another. The church's pastoral ministry seeks to ease the pain connected with broken marriages where possible, as we all strive to move closer to that heavenly sanctuary where Christ has preceded us and to which he calls all of us without exception. We invite anyone presently involved in an invalid marriage to contact us and determine how the situation might be addressed.

Those individuals troubled by sickness, chronic illness, facing surgery, old age, physical handicaps or mental struggles are invited to receive the Sacrament. REVERENCE IN OUR CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARISTSILENCE IS NOT ONLY GOLDEN BUT SACRED

Worship is the reverence and honor we offer God for being who He is and for what He has done for us. When we worship God, we use words, actions and gestures to express our love and devotion. This is especially true when we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, which is our greatest act of public worship. Our reverence and behavior should reflect the importance of each celebration. In order to set a prayerful atmosphere, our silent preparation is essential. Quiet time is important to allow each individual to mentally prepare for the celebration. Therefore, it is our responsibility to maintain respectful silence once we enter the doors of the church. Complete cooperation is required. If important conversation is necessary, individuals should move outside the main body of the church to the entrance area. Let us attempt to observe this practice for our celebration here at St. Colman. Stayed tuned for more good news about expressing reverence.
