THE TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

For centuries, many have interpreted the gospel of this Sunday as the decisive statement of Jesus concerning the relationship of church and state. However, it seems unlikely, in this confrontation by the Pharisees, that Jesus was intending to teach an all-encompassing theory about the roles of politics and religion in life. Jesus recognizes the trap of the Pharisees and redirects our focus. "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's but give to God what is God's." There is a fundamental truth in his answer. The world presents many images after which we can model our lives. However, as Christians we have already been gifted with an image. We have been created in the image and likeness of our God, who is love. It is through living out this identity as a son or a daughter of God, reflecting who we really are called to be and become for others, do we find true fulfillment and peace.

FROM THE NPM PITTSBURGH CHAPTER -Dated July 26, 2011

At the diocesan new Mass "sing through" last night at St. Margaret's in Greentree, Father Chepponis announced that the musicians of the diocese may begin implementing the newly translated sections of the Mass-- provided they are sung beginning September. Those being: Gloria, Sanctus, Memorial Acclamations. If these sections of the Mass are recited, they are to be done so with the present translation until November 27th.

ST COLMAN AGENDA FOR THE NEW SUNG MASS TRANSLATIONS

We plan to begin singing the New Mass Settings beginning the first weekend in October for both the Weekend and Weekday Masses. Five new Masses have been ordered and we will begin using only three to start.

The Mass for Christian Unity - will be used during October and November. Pew cards with the music will be provided. (New Mass - Weekend and Weekdays)

The Danish Amen Mass - will be used October and November weekdays only. During Advent we will sing for Weekend Masses. Pew cards with the music will be provided. (Revised Mass)

The Mass of Wisdom - will be used during Feast Times, i.e., Christmas and Easter and during the week as well. Pew cards

With music will be provided. (New Mass)

PLEASE NOTE... The biggest change has been the wording in the Gloria, but also, we are now using the entire piece together. There will no longer be antiphonal settings where the congregation only sings the refrain. We will now sing it from beginning to end as a worshipping community.

ST. COLMAN GRIEF SHARING GROUP

St. Colman Grief Sharing Group will have their first meeting on Thursday, November 17th and every third Thursday of each month from 6:30-8:30pm in the school cafeteria. Please join us for a comforting environment to share your grief or to just be with those who care. Any questions may be addressed by contacting Don Cwynar at bsco105@aol.com.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED AT WEST PENN FORBES REGIONAL HOSPITAL: When we find ourselves in the hospital, as Catholics, one of the things we hope for is to receive Holy Communion during our stay. At Forbes Hospital there is a wonderful group of Eucharistic Minister volunteers who provide the Eucharist on a daily basis. However, in order to continue this daily service, we are in need of additional Eucharistic Ministers. If you are a Catholic in good standing, all you need is the desire to serve your brothers and sisters in their time of need ONE DAY a month, and a letter of recommendation from your Pastor. You need not be a Eucharistic Minister in your parish to serve at the hospital. If you feel the call to this much needed ministry, please contact Jackie Dugan at 412-372-4113. Thank you and may God Bless you and your family. Deacon Herb Riley.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday. United with the Catholics of the world at the Table of the Lord, we recommit ourselves to our vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries. Our prayers and Eucharistic celebration next Sunday are directed in a special way toward our brothers and sisters throughout the world who are waiting to hear the joyous "Good News" of Jesus. Through our financial gifts, offered in next weeks collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, we become partners with missionaries who proclaim the Gospel and offer help and hope to the poor in mission countries.
