TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Self-satisfaction is a problem that many of us have to struggle with. Being satisfied with ourselves can put us in a very dangerous position. It can lead to blindness, pride and what is perhaps worst of all, a great separation between others and ourselves. St. Francis of Assisi tells us: "I am what I am before God. Nothing else. Nothing more. Nothing less." Look at the tax collector. What made his prayer acceptable to God? The tax collector had not lived as he should have. He probably cheated many people out of a lot of money. But now, he comes before God and confesses what he has done. He knows himself. He has looked in the mirror of self-knowledge and has clearly seen himself. He hasn't been blind to his sins. And now he stands before God and can do no more than cry out: "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." May we have the courage to be as honest with God as this man was. Then we will know the same peace that God surely placed deep into the heart of this humble and honest person.

Thoughts to reflect on and share: "When we are down, troubled, worried, afraid or feel alone and abandoned, the help we need to lift us up can always be found in the Lord." Deacon Herb Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: Next week, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Its theme this year is "Mercy Changes the World." Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve some of the poorest of the poor. Please keep the Missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith.

THE LETTER TO ST. TIMOTHY WE HEAR TODAY TELLS US WE WILL BE EQUIPPED for every good work. ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE! involves that work of the Church, envisioning how our parishes, schools and ministries can best respond to the changes in our community. At Parish Consultation Sessions draft models will be presented in a video. The models will propose potential groupings of parishes that come together to form a new parish. You will be asked to consider the possibilities of proposed models and offer your feedback at the session. The meetings for our parish will be held on November 7th and November 17th. All are invited to study the challenges and opportunities we face together. See the draft models after our meetings at On Mission For The Church Alive.org
