THIRTIETH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Jesus himself tells us that the greatest thing we can do is to love God with all our hearts, all our souls, all our strength. In other words, hold nothing back when you love God. We need to burn with that desire, the desire to love. Everything else in our lives should serve that one desire. But we have to walk the path of prayer and awareness if we hope to develop a passionate love for God and others. "Prayer is attention to God's coming into our life, a recognition of the grace of the present hour, and unfailing vigilance for the Lord's calling." It is the most personal in human life. Nothing brings people closer together in oneness, brotherhood and solidarity than to call the one God, "Our Father." (Bernard Haring) Through daily and persistent prayer, we allow God to shape us into people of love and compassion. May we all find the courage to surrender ourselves into the loving hands of God.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel the Pharisee was talking about commandments (something we are forced to obey by external pressure) and Jesus was talking about love (an internal exhortation to give our heart, soul and mind to another). One demands allegiance, the other requires personal commitment. In our families we daily lay down our lives for each other not because we 'gotta' but because love compels us.

BAPTISM CLASS & DATES OF CELEBRATION

FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

St. Colman's Parish would like to implement a Hospitality Greeter Committee, one of the building blocks of the Parish Evangelization of the Pittsburgh Diocese. By becoming a Greeter at the church doors before each Mass, we will share a warm welcome, and our partnership within our Parish. We are in need of volunteers for this program. We will need 4 people at each Mass to arrive at Church 20 minutes prior to Mass to be at each door to welcome and greet parishioners with a few words of kindness. Our anticipated dates to start is the weekend of November 1/2. Our goal is the first and third weekend Masses of each month until we build a larger group of volunteers. If interested please call Patti at 412-829-0494. I am encouraged that this program will be the Evangelization our Parish is looking for to support our growth.
