THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus himself tells us that the greatest thing we can do is to love God with all our hearts, all our souls, all our strength. In other words, hold nothing back when you love God. We need to burn with that desire - the desire to love. Everything else in our lives should serve that one desire. But we have to walk the path of prayer and awareness if we hope to develop a passionate love for God and others. Prayer is attention to God's coming into our life, a recognition of the grace of the present hour, and un-failing vigilance for the Lord's calling. It is the most personal in human life. Nothing brings people closer together in oneness, brotherhood and solidarity than to call the one God "Our Father." (Bernard Haring) Through daily and persistent prayer, we allow God to shape us into people of love and compassion. May we all have the courage to surrender ourselves into the loving hands of God.

Thoughts to reflect on and share: "Jesus teaches us that the two greatest commandments are to love God and love our neighbor. We know who God is. Do we know who our neighbor is...in Jesus' eyes? Deacon Herb Follow Deacon Herb on Facebook.

MASS ATTENDANCE COUNT -Formerly October CountAll parishes are asked to compile their attendance data for the weekend Masses beginning September 30, 2017 until April 8, 2018. The purpose is to update Sunday Mass attendance trends throughout the local parishes which will provide valuable information to assist in long-range planning for the new parish grouping that was given in the flyer in last week's bulletin as the On Mission for the Church Alive! program unfolds. It will assist in determining where Masses will be celebrated and times. Please share this information with family members, friends and neighbors who do not regularly attend Mass.

The Greatest Commandment - In today's Gospel Jesus makes his command of love succinct: Love God with all your heart, mind and soul and love your neighbor as yourself. While succinct, this command is not always simple. Sure, it may not be hard for many to not kill and to keep holy the Sabbath, but how about getting frustrated with God or others, or fulfilling our needs before what God or others expect of us. It can be hard to set aside our desires or what's convenient for us, yet we must be willing to do what honors God and builds up our sisters and brothers, no matter the personal cost involved. As On Mission for The Church Alive! unfolds our normal time or place of worshipping God may change and be less convenient, and that will be hard for us. That doesn't mean, however, that we give up on God or neglect our family of faith. On Mission seeks to make our worship more vibrant and our opportunities to build up the Body of Christ more effective. Prepare now for the changes ahead so that you can be ready to participate in the life of the Church in new and exciting ways. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS is televised each Sunday on WPXI and PNC at 6am and the ION Channel at 6:30am.
