THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

What is going on between Jesus and Zaccheus that causes Zaccheus to declare suddenly, "Look, I've decided to give half my property to the poor, and I'll pay back four times the amount to anyone I've cheated"? After all Jesus didn't choose Zaccheus because he was worthy. Jesus doesn't equate Zaccheus with his sins. He calls out to him and honors him with an invitation. He creates an opening in Zaccheus' narrow life because sin always narrows our souls. Then we hear the amazing transformation, his words of repentance. Jesus has the last word: "Today salvation has come to his house." whatever causes our brokenness - whether it is an illness, guilt, depression, personal tragedy or a sinful pattern of behavior - Jesus is looking for us. He wants to bind up our wounds. May we always realize Jesus is gazing into our eyes with love, asking to come to our house today. May we have the spirit of repentance and openness to the power of God as Zaccheus taught us today.

Thoughts to reflect on and share: "Love overcomes all else when we have mercy in our hearts." Deacon Herb

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

THANK YOU for your generous response to the Society of the Propagation of the Faith last weekend on World Mission Sunday. Our parish raised $2047. While some go to serve in other countries to develop the Church and serve its people, all of us are called to pray and support the Missions from right where we live. These missionaries provide essential education and health care, social outreach and advocacy, and pastoral service. They address basic human needs, while in every moment offering spiritual comfort and support to the suffering and the marginalized.

AS OUR ANCESTORS IN FAITH worked to build the Kingdom of God here on earth, we have the opportunity to do the same. ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE! invites us to picture how our parishes, schools and ministries can be vital centers of worship and service and deepen our relationship with Jesus. In draft models that will be proposed at the Parish Consultation sessions we will see ways that existing parishes can be grouped together into new parishes that can provide improved ministry and outreach. Recommendations for facilities needed to serve a new parish will also be suggested. NO DECISIONS have been made regarding any models; that is why your feedback is so important. Join us at our parish consultation sessions on Monday, November 7th and Thursday, November 17th at 7pm. Following our parish meetings the draft models will be available at OnMissionChurchAlive.org.

Veterans Day Observation East Catholic School: Veterans Day is a day designated to honor the men and women both living and deceased who have fought and or died for our country. The freedom we have today is hard won by these soldiers who paid the ultimate price. They are the reason we are free today. East Catholic students and staff will be thanking veterans with a Mass in their honor on Friday November 11th at 9 am in St. Maurice Church. At the Mass the students will read poems of thanks and sing songs appropriate for the celebration. After Mass as a small token of appreciation, we will invite veterans to a light reception in the school cafeteria, Keane Hall. Although we can never truly repay the veterans for the sacrifices they have made, the students and faculty work hard to try to make this a wonderful, spiritual celebration. We invite all Veterans from our respective parishes and community to join us for this beautiful Veterans Day Observation. Please call the school office at 412-351-5403 if you plan on attending both the Mass and reception by Monday, November 7th.

11th Annual Gathering of Catholic Men: Saturday, November 12th at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center. Our Annual Gathering of Catholic Men is a one of a kind event for you to be challenged, encouraged and to encounter Jesus. Don't miss this awesome day. Get more info and register today at cmfpitt.org.

St. Colman Annual Craft and Vendor Show will be held on Saturday, November 5th from 10am until 2pm. There are over 20 crafters and vendors selling items that would make a perfect Christmas gift for that special someone in your life. There will also be a 50/50 raffle and Chinese Auction. Food will be available. For more information, please contact Gail Bachy at 412-327-4550 or email thebachyfamily@verizon.net.

Home With the Lord: Your prayers are requested for the repose of the soul of Aileen Slaczka. May she rest in the peace and the joy of the Lord.
