THE THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Belief in the life after death is woven into the fabric of Christian faith. Christian practice, liturgy, private prayer all center on the belief that those who have preceded us in death continue to live. What we do know about our future life with God is that it is not only vastly superior to the present life, it is also vastly different. The joy of heaven is life with God with no fear of loss. There is the further belief that we will be reunited with those who have gone before us. Eternal life is a gospel given. Each of us, however, must live our journey of faith here on earth in response to our vocation as Christians in order to insure our sharing in this great mystery of God's love. Follow Jesus Christ as the way, the truth and the life. With Paul we simply pray to be strengthened, with the firm conviction that the God who is faithful will bring us home.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time: A Family Perspective

The question of the Sadducees to Jesus is framed in a story about a family with seven brother and their sister-in-law. Through story telling families remember their shared past and expose the companionship of God in your family from generation to generation.

Support elderly religious. A parishioner writes, "As a Catholic school student from grades K-12, I was formed to be the person I am by many religious brothers and sisters, and I am forever grateful." Show your appreciation for the senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests who made a positive difference in so many lives. Please give generously to next week's collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious.

OCTOBER COUNT:

"WHERE ARE THE OTHER NINE"

Here is a summary of the attendance count taken on the weekends of October. Unfortunately the average has decreased for the last few years. The average attendance for each weekend was 1062 individuals for the five Masses with the following breakdown: Saturday: 6 pm - 175, Sunday: 8 am - 164, 10 am - 260, Noon - 194 and 5:30 pm - 269. This figure represents 30% of the registered, baptized parishioners and visitors. Our Lord said after curing the ten lepers "where are the other nine" when only one returned to offer thanks. Are there members of your family, friends or neighbors who are neglecting to pray together with the faith community? (This is not an option but responsible behavior for the Catholic Christian.) Take the opportunity to encourage these individuals to return to full participation in the Eucharist. Invite someone back to Church as we approach the sacred season of Advent in anticipation of Christmas. With five Sunday liturgies each week, there is a capacity for over 3000 individuals to attend at St. Colman. A question to consider very seriously: do we really need five Masses? Reducing parish Masses has been a serious discussion at the Diocesan Vicariate Meetings with the declining number of priests.

MINISTRIES: Protecting God's Children - This is a session required by the Diocese for ALL Volunteer ministers and staff members of the Parish, including catechist, ushers, lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, choir members, or any of the other 57 ministries in the parish. You MUST attend this session to complete your clearance process. Without this class, you are not to minister in the parish. There are many sessions listed on the Diocese of Pittsburgh website at www.diopitt.org.

NAM Parish will hold a session for "Protecting God's Children" this Fall. If you volunteer in any capacity at the church, school or CCD or any of their functions, you must take this course, which will be offered Thursday, November 14th from 7-10pm in DeLuca Hall. There is no need to register.

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT
On Sunday, November 24th, the Feast of Christ the King, there will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following the Noon Mass until the celebration of Benediction at 5:00pm. This is an opportunity to worship in a prayerful, reflective manner in the special presence of the Eucharist. Consider spending some quality time in prayer, spiritual reading, or just meditating on God's love and continuing presence in your life. This afternoon opportunity will replace the normal monthly Holy Hour.

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS

Mass will be celebrated on Thanksgiving Day at 10 am (not the usual 8:30 am time.) Hopefully this will afford more parishioners the opportunity to begin the day of Thanksgiving in a prayerful manner. You are asked to bring a non-perishable food item to the liturgy as part of our weekly food bank effort.

HOME WITH THE LORD: Your prayers are requested for the repose of the souls of Josephine Drenning, Valetta McDonald, Lawrence Canobbio, Edward McNulty, Ann Streiner, Anna Rose Klein, Francis Raffaele, Edward Bahleda, Birt Hale and Irene Roberts. May they rest in the peace and joy of the Lord.

Collection for the Archdiocese of the Military

Last year, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops approved a new national collection to be taken up once every three years to support the Archdiocese of the Military which is responsible for supplying priests to serve as chaplains in the U.S. military around the world. This collection gives us an opportunity to serve those who serve. It assures continuing access to the sacraments, Catholic formation and spiritual guidance of a Catholic chaplain, wherever they are stationed. The first collection is scheduled to be taken up on the weekend of November 9/10, however, the Little Sisters of the Poor were scheduled several months ago to visit our parish that week to ask for funds to support their special work. Therefore, the collection for the Archdiocese of the Military will be taken up here on the weekend of November 23/24, appropriately before Thanksgiving.
