THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Everyone who hears today's gospel has a talent from the Lord. Some are using that talent to his glory. Some are not. Some aren't even sure what their talents are. Others know but bury them because they feel incompetent. It may be a talent of the hands such as sculpturing or playing the piano. It may be a talent of the eyes such as photography or flower arranging. Our talent may be of the mind. It may be one of the heart or the ability to counsel someone in trouble. We may be able to organize people to accomplish a project or gather facts and details to explain them in a meaningful way. Whatever our talent or however many we may have, God has given every one of us this wonderful gift for expressing our own unique personality. A talent is very simply an instrument God has provided each of us which has been in our heart since we were born. Take note of the gifts with which we have been entrusted by God. Accept God's invitation to use those gifts to honor his name and serve his people in the kingdom on earth.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Family Perspective

As the man in today's gospel entrusted his servants with his money, so God has "entrusted" family to us. Like the good servants we are expected, not to play it safe, but to selflessly and totally invest ourselves in each other.

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

On Sunday, November 23rd, the Feast of Christ the King, there will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following the Noon Mass until the celebration of Benediction at 5PM. This is an opportunity to worship in a prayerful, reflective manner in the special presence of the Eucharist. Consider spending some quality time in prayer, spiritual reading or just meditating on God's love and continuing presence in your life.

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS

Mass will be celebrated on Thanksgiving Day at 10:00 am (not the usual 8:30am time). Hopefully this will afford more parishioners the opportunity to begin the day of Thanksgiving in a prayerful manner. You are asked to bring non-perishable food items to the liturgy as a part of our weekly food bank effort.

BAPTISM CLASS & DATES OF CELEBRATION

The next Baptism classes are scheduled for Saturday, December 6th and Saturday, March 7th at 11:00am in the school cafeteria meeting room.. Please note this date if you anticipate a baptism in the next few months. Your gift in next weeks collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious provides vital support for the retirement needs of senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. It also helps ensure that younger members can continue the good works of their elders! Please be generous.

GIVING TREE

Many neighborhoods in our surrounding areas are feeling the urgency of providing for their families at this difficult time. We at St. Colman have always come together to provide a gift for a needy child. This year we are asking you to please take a Name Tag from the tree and purchase a gift for a needy child. It is a great opportunity to manifest the teaching of Christ by giving. The tree will be set up the weekend of November 22nd/23rd. Please take a tag off the tree and sign your name and phone number next to the child's name and tag number in the book. All gifts must be returned to the rectory office by December 13th.

OUR NEW YOUNG ADULT CONTEMPORARY CHOIR will be leading the music for the 1st time at the 6:00 PM Mass on Saturday, November 29th. All are invited to come and listen to our young people lead our music that day.

LADIES OF CHARITY

The Ladies of Charity are again collecting coats for the needy this November. Any gently used coat (ladies, men's or children's) would be greatly appreciated. Please no coats that have tears, broken zippers or missing buttons. Coats should be cleaned and ready for use. Containers will be placed at the entry doors and can be dropped off anytime the church is open. All coats will be distributed in November only. Last year we warmed the hearts and bodies of over 250 people including many veterans and shelters or domestic abuse victims who leave home with only what they have on their backs. You're generosity is boundless... God Bless You.

OCTOBER COUNT:"WHERE ARE THE OTHER NINE"

Here is a summary of the attendance count on the weekends of October. Unfortunately the average has decreased for the last few years. The average attendance for each weekend was 1006 of the five Masses with the following breakdown: Sat. 6pm-192, Sun. 8am-158, 10am-223, Noon- 158, & 5:30pm-275. This figure represents 29% of the registered, baptized parishioners and visitors. Our Lord said after curing ten lepers "where are the other nine" when only one returned to offer thanks. Are there members of your family, friends or neighbors who are neglecting to pray together with the faith community? (This is not an option but responsible behavior for the Catholic Christian) Take the opportunity to encourage these individuals to return to full participation in the Eucharist. Invite someone back to Church as we approach the sacred season of Advent in anticipation of Christmas. With five Sunday liturgies each week, there is a capacity for over 3000 individuals to attend mass at St. Colman. A question to consider very seriously: do we really need five masses? Reducing parish masses has been a serious discussion at the local Vicariate Meetings with the declining number of priests.

CHRISTMAS DISCERNMENT RETREAT: Friday, December 19th through Sunday, December 21st. Led by Fr. Joe Freedy with Bishop Zubik, Fr. Welding and Fr. Vaskov. Open to men in college and post college who are discerning a vocation to the priesthood. Please visit www.pghpriest.com for more information Fr. Joe Freedy, Vocations Director JFREEDY@DIOPITT.ORG 412-456-3123.
